Flamingo Romance

Two of our favorite island inhabitants tied the knot this past weekend. Roxie and Harold finally got hitched. The ceremony took place on the white sand beach of Aruba. Their best friends and family were in attendance. It was a romantic moment for everyone there.

Stingrays Gone Wild

One of our most popular destinations, Stingray City was haunted by several renegade sharks this past weekend. Snorkelers were caught off-guard by these vicious predators and quickly swam back to their boats. What is typically a calm sight-seeing adventure turned out to be terror-filled. Fortunately, no one was injured, but we're not sure if any will return
